YW Member Goal Nears Completion

Renewed vigor on the part of YWCA members is being noticed this week as the group's membership drive moves into its final week with just 17 new members to go to reach its quota of 100.

The successful drive is being chaired by Mrs. Mary Ulmer, assisted by Mrs. Helene Scott.

New members welcomed in the past week were Mesdames B. T. Whitney, Dean L. Sears, Adel Burfield, Wilda McKenna, D. P. Baldwin, William E. Blair.

Wedding Revealed

Slipping away to Las Vegas, Nevada Saturday, February 25, Miss Joan Conelman, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Conelman of 2342 Pacific Coast Highway, recited vows with Ray Ferrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ferrin of 1842 W. 25th street.

Accompanying the couple to attend them during the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. (Mary Gordon) Richard Vance.

Mrs. Ferrin is employed by the Lomita office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and her husband is associated in business with his father.

They are residing on Pacific Coast Highway.

Delphians' Activities

Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphian Society will meet tomorrow morning in the library to discuss "The Meaning of Good Design in the Practical Arts." Objective of the study club meeting is "To determine what makes the design of useful articles good or bad, with special reference to architecture."

Germaine Ballou, ballet instructor, was a guest at the last meeting of the chapter, when the topic was "The Kines, the Arts." At the delightful luncheon which followed in the El Prado home of the president, Mrs. Don H. Hyde, members enjoyed an informal talk by Mrs. Ballou on varied phases of the dance art.

Yuma Rites Sunday Now Revealed

In a surprise move Miss Frances Lundstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Crenshaw of 26241 Eshelman avenue, moved to Yuma, Arizona Sunday to become the bride of James V. Summers, S1/c U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Summers Sr. of Redondo Beach.

The bride will continue her education at Narbonne High School where she expects to graduate in June.

Mr. Summers has just returned from two years duty in Guam.

They are residing in Walteria.

Milton Lucky Cubmaster New Pack 743

Milton Lucky Sr. of 1208 W. 252nd street, Harbor City, has accepted the leadership of the newly-organized Cub Scout Pack to be known as Harbor City Pack No. 743.

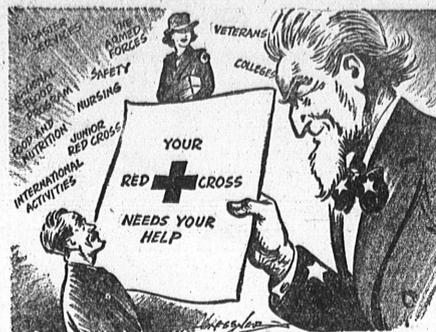

Cubmaster Lucky will be assisted by the following Scout committees: Harold Limbacher, chairman; Douglas Lawson, secretary; Earl Swenson, assistant treasurer and Elva Berry.

At the organization meeting Thursday night, February 23, at the Harbor City School auditorium Bob Smallwood, organization and extension chairman for the Cub Scouts of the harbor area, assisted in signing 28 boys as charter members of the pack and assigning them to their respective dens.

Sorority is Entertained

The new Lakewood Village home of Mrs. Mary Brockway was the setting for the monthly meeting of Tau Delta Omega Sorority.

Following a short business meeting at which plans were outlined for a family dinner party, bridge furnished diversion with Helen Smith and Mary Ellen DeVore as high score holders.

RED CROSS FUND DRIVE LAUNCHED IN TORRANCE

"Forward march!" was signalled this week to the ranks of Red Cross volunteers here, spurring an all-out effort to reach the Torrance Red Cross fund goal of $7200.

Red Cross workers started on their initial rounds of offices and homes Wednesday reiterating the campaign slogan, "For every dollar you give before, this year add a quarter more."

Mrs. Gladys Weston, Torrance volunteer drive chairman, in a message to the community of Torrance asked residents to welcome the Red Cross volunteers at the door with a generous response to the fund.

"By quickly and successfully reaching our quota in this community, residents and business people will be assured of

'Donegal Fair' To Be Given By Students

Nativity School will present "The Donegal Fair," an Irish minstrel, at Torrance High School auditorium, on Thursday, March 16.

The program, in which 100 pupils of the parochial school will participate, will honor the feast day of the pastor, Rev. Father P. J. McGuinness, and proceeds will be used for the school's athletic program.

"The Shoemaker and the Elves," a short operetta will be given on the same program by the smaller pupils.

March Events Calendered By Chapter

Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, has calendered the following March affairs:

Friday, March 3, a daytime potluck at Cora Hill's home, 20705 S. Oak street.

Saturday, March 4, a food sale at the entrance to Levy Department Store with Martha Jones as chairman. Cakes, pies and salads will be among the items offered for sale.

Regular meetings have been scheduled for Wednesday, March 8 and 22, according to Cora Hill, publicity chairman.

sustaining the benefits of Red Cross services.

"The blood program, first aid instruction, home nursing, hospital services, disaster and post-disaster rehabilitation, financial assistance to war-disabled veterans, Junior Red Cross, water safety and other humanitarian work, are among the community-wide programs of the Red Cross which must be continued," the local chairman said.

"Having failed to meet our Los Angeles Chapter goal for the past two years, the third time must be the charm, requiring larger donations and extra efforts to put this drive over," the campaign leader stated.

Volunteers will make personal calls in this community throughout the month of March, which has been proclaimed Red Cross Month by President Harry S. Truman, Governor Earl Warren and Mayor Fletcher Bowron.
